

Index

pag.

Introduction	XI
---------------------	----

First Part: FAMILY BUSINESS

Chapter 1

Defining and Classifying Family Businesses

(Salvatore Esposito De Falco)

1.1. Family business: defining aspects	3
1.2. Classification of family businesses	5
1.2.1. Domestic family business	11
1.2.2. Traditional Family Business	12
1.2.3. Enlarged family business	15
1.2.4. Open Family Business	17
1.3. References	19

Chapter 2

The role of the family in the government of the family business

(Nicola Cucari)

2.1. The role of the family in the family business	21
2.2. Dynamics of growth and development of the family business	25
2.3. The generational transition	27
2.4. The generational transition crisis	31
2.5. The Instruments of Generational Transition	34
2.6. References	37

Chapter 3An evolutionary model of family business(Salvatore Esposito De Falco)*

3.1. Interpreting Business Evolution Through Biology and Social Sciences	39
3.2. The evolutionary model of family businesses	44
3.2.1. The genotype dimension	46
3.2.2. The relational dimension	48
3.2.2.1. The processes of institutionalization and contextualization	49
3.2.3. The phenotypic dimension	53
3.3. The relationship between identity and image	56
3.4. References	60

Chapter 4The management of innovation in family business(Beatrice Orlando)*

4.1. What is an innovation?	63
4.2. Innovation in family businesses	66
4.3. Generation, adoption, and diffusion of an innovation	69
4.4. Open Innovation	71
4.5. Real options reasoning approach to innovation	72
4.6. Conclusions	74
4.7. References	75

Second Part: GOVERNANCE AND FAMILY BUSINESSChapter 5*Systems of corporate governance: legal frameworks and contextual influences(Salvatore Esposito De Falco)*

5.1. Defining corporate governance	81
5.1.1. The 2003 reform of corporate governance and corporate governance in family-run businesses	87

	pag.
5.2. The impact of contextual factors on corporate governance	92
5.3. The impact of the financial system on corporate governance	92
5.4. The impact of the legal system on corporate governance: common law vs civil law	94
5.5. The impact of the political and institutional context on corporate governance: path dependence	96
5.5.1. The Anglo-Saxon model of corporate governance	98
5.5.2. The Rhineland model of corporate governance	99
5.5.3. The Latin model of corporate governance	101
5.6. References	104

Chapter 6

The Property

(Emanuele Sorrentino)

6.1. Introduction	107
6.2. Theories about ownership and management in corporate governance environment	108
6.3. Theories of the creation of economic value in the relationship between ownership and management	109
6.3.1. Managerial Theory	109
6.3.2. The Agency Theory	110
6.3.3. Property Rights Theory	113
6.4. Theories of the creation of socioeconomic value in the relationship between ownership and management	114
6.4.1. Stakeholder Theory	115
6.4.2. Stewardship Theory	116
6.4.3. Social-emotional Wealth Theory	119
6.5. Theories about the figure of entrepreneur	121
6.5.1. The “risk bearer” entrepreneur by Frank Knight (1921)	122
6.5.2. The concept of entrepreneur as innovator by Schumpeter (1942)	122
6.5.3. The contemporary approach to the figure of the entrepreneur by Cole (1949)	123
6.6. Familiar entrepreneur and the role of founder	124
6.6.1. Values and entrepreneurship culture of family business	129
6.7. References	135

Chapter 7
The Management
(Giuseppe Mazza)

7.1. The role of management	139
7.2. Family and non-Family managers	141
7.3. Are family managers agents or stewards?	142
7.4. Management teams in family firms	145
7.4.1. Pure Family Management	146
7.4.2. Mixed Constellation of Family and Non-Family management	147
7.4.3. Pure Non-Family management	148
7.5. References	148

Chapter 8
The Family Governance in Italy
(Salvatore Esposito De Falco)

8.1. The Italian corporate model in family-owned companies	151
8.2. Family governance in the midst of family values, ownership, and management	154
8.3. Corporate groups	157
8.3.1. The structure of Italian corporate groups	159
8.3.2. Generational passage in company groups	162
8.4. References	165

Chapter 9
Governance bodies and instruments of family business
(Nicola Cucari)

9.1. Governance in the family businesses	167
9.2. Instruments and bodies of the family governance	169
9.2.1. The governance institutional bodies	169
9.2.2. The governance family bodies	174
9.2.2.1. The Family Assembly	174
9.2.2.2. The Family Council	175
9.2.2.3. Other bodies of the family governance	177

	pag.
9.2.3. Family Instruments of government	178
9.2.3.1. Family Agreement	178
9.2.3.2. Family Office	180
9.3. Concluding considerations	182
9.4. References	186

Chapter 10

Family Business Filmography Lab

(Eduardo Esposito, Francesco Mirone)

10.1. Methodological approach	189
10.2. The movies	190
10.2.1. Il gioiellino	190
10.2.2. Arbitrage	192
10.2.3. Wall Street	193
10.2.4. Wall Street: Money never sleeps	195
10.2.5. Meet Joe Black	198
10.2.6. Enron	201
10.2.7. Trading places	203
Appendix: The Fiat Group (Beatrice Orlando)	205
Brief Authors Biography	213
Bibliography	217