

Indice

pag.

The calls for tender and the direct, concrete and current interest, as a prerequisite for the right to challenge

CARMENCITA GUACCI

1.	The procedure in public evidence	1
2.	The call for tender and the invitation to participate in the tenders	4
3.	The annexes to the notice	6
4.	The legal nature of the call for tender	7
5.	Contents of the call for tender	11
6.	Derogations to the procedures for selecting the contractor issued with a call for tenders	14
7.	Protection of participants in the competition. The enforceability of the call for tender	19
8.	The direct, concrete, and current interest, as a prerequisite for legitimacy to act	25

The reliability of the economic operator and the review of the administrative judge on the choice of the public administration

ENZA ROMANO

1.	The exclusion of the economic operator from the procedure for awarding public contracts in Italy	31
2.	Historical outlines of the general requirements framework	34
3.	The regulatory framework of the exclusion from the tender due to lack of general requirements	37
4.	Purpose of the grounds for exclusion due to lack of general requirements: moral and professional reliability of the operator and protection of economic public order	38

	pag.
5. Considerations on exclusion from the tender for definitive criminal convictions and anti-mafia precautionary reasons	41
6. Exclusion from the tender for serious tax or contribution violations	42
7. The grounds for exclusion provided for by art. 80, paragraph 5	45
8. Exclusion from the custody procedure for serious professional offences	46
9. The configuration of the power of exclusion of the economic operator due to lack of the general requirements and the judicial review	57
10. Summary considerations on clarity and (un)certainly of rules and administrative evaluation	63