

CONTENTS

	page
List of figures and tables	xv
Contributors	xxi
Preface	xxv

Part 1

FROM SUSTAINABILITY TO IMPACT EVALUATION AND MANAGEMENT: CORPORATE PERSPECTIVE

1. Sustainability performance and ESG factors: a new challenge for small and medium sized enterprises (SMEs)	3
Roberto Tombolesi
1. Introduction	3
2. ESG and SMEs	4
3. The central role of stakeholders	6
4. Customer management of SMEs in the supply chains of large companies	7
5. ESG and corporate finance of SMEs	8
6. Additional benefits for SMEs	11
7. Barriers for SMEs adopting ESG principles	12
8. Conclusions	13
References	14
2. The impact of corporate social responsibility on financial performance and firm value	15
Luca Provaroni, Francesco Checcacci
1. Introduction	15
2. The relationship between CSR and financial performance	17
2.1. Literature review	17
2.2. Methodology	17
2.3. Results	20

	page
3. The relationship between CSR and value	23
3.1. Literature review	23
3.2. Methodology	24
3.3. Results	25
4. Conclusion	28
References	29
3. Impact evaluation and sustainability reporting: a case study of an integrated framework	31
Cristiano Busco, Elisabetta Scognamiglio, Irene Litardi, Ludovica Testa
1. Introduction	31
2. Research methodology	33
3. From Corporate Social Responsibility to Social Impact: the evolution of evaluation and accountability	34
4. The Integrated Reporting Framework	36
5. Italiacamp framework	38
6. Case study: application of Italiacamp framework to Luiss Guido Carli reporting	39
6.1. The evaluation framework	40
7. Conclusion	47
References	48
4. Accountability and third-party independent verification in impact investing: the case of BlueMark	53
Chiara Andreoli, Sandro Brunelli, Paolo Taticchi
1. Introduction	54
2. Methodology	55
3. Background of the research	56
3.1. What is Impact investing?	56
3.2. The market for Impact investing	57
3.3. Pillars of Impact investing	57
3.4. What are the main issues in Impact investing?	59
4. Diving into the role of third-party evaluation of impact: the case of BlueMark	62
4.1. Accountability at the eco-system level	64
4.2. Two pillars of accountability for impact: impact management practices and impact performance control	64
4.3. Main differences and similarities between an impact verification company and traditional financial auditors	66
4.4. The fight against impact washing through trust-building	66

	page
4.5. Impact washing: U.S. vs EU market	67
4.6. The future of impact verification	68
5. Conclusion	69
Acknowledgements	69
References	69
5. Impact evaluation for public institution: the case of an Invitalia's Incentive	73
Marco Claudio Battarelli Martini
1. Introduction	73
2. The methodological choice	75
3. Applying the framework on Resto al Sud impact analysis	76
4. Project Management e governance	89
5. Lesson learned and conclusions	91
References	93
6. Impact evaluation for an impact project: #Ricuciamo	95
Ludovica Testa, Irene Litardi, Vincenzo Lo Cascio
1. Introduction	95
2. #Ricuciamo: vision, objectives, and features of the project	97
3. The impact generated	100
4. Lessons learned	108
References	109
7. What are the upcoming challenges in impact management?	111
Lavinia Pastore, Luigi Corvo
1. Introduction	111
2. Impact fundamental theoretical background	112
3. Impact and sustainability: where is the link?	116
4. Are the social and environmental impacts the same?	120
5. Conclusions and future research agenda	122
References	123

Part 2

FINANCIAL SECTOR, SUSTAINABILITY INTEGRATION AND IMPACT MANAGEMENT

8. Amendment of CSRD directive, NRRP, financial market and ESG parameters	129
Gianluca Santilli
1. Introduction	129
2. The proposed CSRD directive	131
3. The limited assurance	134
4. The management report	135
5. Directive goal	135
6. Conclusion	143
References	143
9. Finance for impact: the new era of sustainable finance	145
Costanza Consolandi, Andrea Roncella
1. Introduction	145
2. Winds of change on the sustainable finance landscape	147
3. From sustainable finance to finance for impact	150
4. Conclusions	152
References	153
10. ESG performance and impact measurement in the banking industry	157
Irma Malafrente, John Pereira
1. Introduction	157
2. ESG and banking: evidence from academic research	159
3. ESG data in the banking industry	162
4. Impact measurement in the banking sector	168
5. Conclusions	171
References	172

	page
11. Measuring, managing, and communicating impact: the case of ABN AMRO	175
Irma Malafronte, Alexander Carp, Andre Jakobs
1. Introduction	175
2. ABN AMRO's purpose and strategy	177
3. Impact measurement and management approach by ABN AMRO	180
4. Communicating impact: a story of success	186
5. Conclusions: lessons learnt	191
References	192
12. Measuring and reporting organizations impact: the case of Capgemini's impact methodology	193
Fabrizio Granà, Adriana Rossi, Maria Federica Izzo, Camilla De Nardis
1. Introduction	193
2. Understanding and defining organisations' impact	195
3. The Theory of Change (ToC)	197
4. The main steps to design an impact management process	199
5. The Capgemini case as a relevant actor in the definition of new best practices for measuring carbon impacts	200
6. Measuring impact: a methodology to inform transformative project design	202
7. Conclusions	208
References	208
13. Lessons on impact measurement from a Catholic church impact investor	213
Keith Polo, Joelle Birge, Albertina Muema
1. Introduction	214
2. Early impact measurement efforts, processes, and lessons learned	216
3. Initial years of defining metrics and collecting data	218
4. Refining an impact measurement and management system that is practical for the impact investor and the social enterprise	221
5. Conclusion	225
References	227

Part 3

IMPACT MANAGEMENT TO INNOVATE
THE PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS

14. Public-Private Partnerships (PPP) in the Italian Recovery and Resilience Plan (NRRP)	231
Raffaele Parlange
1. Introduction	231
2. A new future for the Public-Private Partnership with NRRP	232
3. Public-Private Partnerships and Urban Regeneration Programs	234
4. Social PPPs and the promotion of cultural heritage	242
4.1. Case study Colle Brianza: Borgo “Campsirago”	245
4.1.1. Brief description	245
4.1.2. Public-Private cooperation agreements	247
4.1.3. Economic and financial plan	249
5. Conclusions and discussion	250
References	253
15. An impact finance instrument for Public-Private Partnerships: SIINC	257
Elisabetta Scognamiglio, Flavio Guella, Silvia Pellizzari, Eleonora Broccardo, Raoul Pisani
1. Introduction	257
2. Methodology	258
3. Impact finance and pay by results	259
4. Social Impact Incentive – SIINC	261
4.1. SIINC’s financial model	261
4.2. SIINC in practice: Mexico and Honduras	262
5. SIINC application to Officine Mezzogiorno	264
5.1. Defining the financial model: a comparative analysis	265
5.2. Funding methods	267
5.3. SIINC financial model at work: a simulation	269
5.4. Juridical analysis considerations	273
5.4.1. SIINC content	274
5.4.2. Introductory analysis of the contractual model	275
6. Conclusion	276
References	278

	page
16. Impact management for urban innovation: Arexpo for Milan innovation district project	279
Ludovica Testa, Martina Bovi, Alberto Mina, Alice Visconti
1. Introduction	279
2. Methodology	280
3. Impact management for innovation: the model	281
4. Innovation district: a model of urban regeneration	282
5. Milan Innovation District: the application of Arexpo	288
5.1. MIND project	288
5.2. The innovation district model and the impact management process: the MIND case	293
6. Evidence from the case	294
References	295
 Index	 297